What impacts have you seen to your business?
"Kyloe AwesomeDocs has delivered significant time-savings for us."

Over 250 hours saved on formatting CVs
"CVs are formatted by our consultants to a consistent style, brand and naming convention. The time spent on formatting has been cut significantly; we've saved over 250 hours over the year and we can be confident that our clients receive professionally formatted CVs quickly."

Accelerated client interactions
"Consultants can send our clients terms of business within a couple of clicks. When signed by the client, the file transfers back to Bullhorn – it's a really simple process and more clients are signing our terms upon receipt which enables us to start the recruitment process a lot sooner."

Reduced errors and up to 200 hours saved on contract processes
"Our Admin team love this product! It is invaluable when sending any documentation to candidates. The process is so simple in comparison to other methods. One click and it is set up to send to the correct email address, alleviating errors which can happen when sending manually via email.

A higher percentage of candidates sign documents at first receipt which cuts down the time chasing for compliance documents. Once signed, the files drop straight into Bullhorn. Compared to the previous contract process this has saved our admin team approximately 150-200 hours."
